Important Terms and Acknowledgment

By submitting this form and working with WorkForLand, you acknowledge and agree to the following key points:

1. WorkForLand is a matching platform only. It connects landowners with independent workers and does not supervise or control the work performed.
2. All workers are independent contractors, not employees of WorkForLand or of the landowner.
3. WorkForLand does not provide tools, equipment, machinery, fuel, or materials. These are supplied by either the landowner and/or the worker, as agreed between you and the worker.

4. WorkForLand does not guarantee the quality, speed, or outcome of any work. All work is performed directly between you (the landowner) and the worker.
5. WorkForLand is not liable for injuries, accidents, property damage, delays, incomplete work, unsafe site conditions, or any losses arising out of the work performed.
6. You are responsible for providing safe and lawful working conditions on your property and for clearly communicating your expectations to the worker.
7. Any dispute resolution, investigation, or reimbursement offered by WorkForLand is a courtesy only and is not guaranteed.
8. By using WorkForLand and requesting labor through this form, you accept the risks associated with outdoor and land-based work and agree to hold WorkForLand harmless from claims related to the work performed.

By signing below, you confirm that the information you have provided is accurate to the best of your knowledge and that you understand and accept the terms listed above.
